Comments: Joined in March 1959 was a member of 718 Squad RM. Still looking for a number of that squad as next year (2009) it will be 50 years since we all started at Deal. Many members found but still many AWOL from the squad reunions. Served Malta GC in 40 Commando and later in Singaport 42 Commando inbetween I was at the ITCRM. Was C.Os driver most of the time

Played football for the Corps before taking up refereeing. Now I am retired I work for the Hertfordshire Football Association Ltd.

So lads of the 718 squad get those fingers out and get in touch for the next reunion

Comments: Sir; is it possible to place this on your news page or announcements please ?

I am in the process (80% completed) of writing a book on Northern Ireland. It is a squaddies' eyeview and its provisional title is "Forgotten Voices of Northern Ireland: Squaddies' Voices".

I am being helped by both Andy Bennett and Keith Hudson of NIVETS and I have links to my website on a large number of Regimental websites (Light Infantry, Green Howards, Signals, Coldstreamers, Glosters, RRW, RHF, Gordons etc) If you click on, for example, www.lightinfantryreunited.co.uk you will see the link to my site (under URGENT: HELP WANTED)

My own website is www.forgotten-voices.co.uk and a quick visit will give you the perspective of my book. It is pro-British Army (in which I served) Pro-Royal Marine and pro-squaddie.

The book is a collection of accounts from squaddies and covers the frightening aspects, the sad and poignant moments (David Hardy who survived the 1988 Ballygawley bus bomb has written for me) as well as the downright hilarious moments.

I am therefore interested in speaking with any ex-soldier from the Royal Marines who might wish to make a contribution to the book based on their experiences. Anonymity is guaranteed for those who desire it.

Please ask Andy Bennett or Keith Hudson at NIVETS for my credentials. My mobile is 07979 220046.

Please pass this to any of your members and to anyone else who can help.

Your help would be greatly appreciated.

Comments: A MESSAGE TO ALL MARINES AND MATELOTS WHEN 'CAPTURED' BY IRANIAN GUNBOATS - READ THIS YOU NUMPTIES :

CANBERRA, Australia (Reuters) -- Australian navy sailors used "colorful language" and aggressive tactics to repel five Iranian gunboats in an incident prior to the capture of 15 British sailors in March, Australian defense officials said on Friday.

Five Iranian Revolutionary Guard gunboats surrounded an Australian boarding party in the Gulf during a routine stop-and-search of the cargo boat MV Sham in December 2004.

"Colorful language was the word. As Australians we might well imagine what (language) was there, but the important thing to note was that it worked," Royal Australian Navy Commodore Steve Gilmore told reporters.

The Australians were boarding the vessel from the missile frigate HMAS Adelaide, on patrol with U.S.-led coalition forces after the Iraq war, when the incident occurred.

The Australian commander ordered his sailors back onto the cargo vessel and into defensive weapons positions in a four-hour confrontation from which the Iranians eventually backed away. No shots were fired, Gilmore said.

British media reports have questioned why lessons were not learned from the Australian incident.

Gilmore, who commanded Coalition naval forces in the Gulf after the clash, said it was impossible to say if the British sailors could have deterred their Iranian captors by taking a similar aggressive stance to the Australians.

I'm hoping someone can help me find pictures or anecdotes of my Dad William (Bill) Livingston. It's his 50th birthday soon and I'm trying to gather whatever memorabilia I can from his time in the Royal Marines. From what I can gather (without making him too suspicious) he served from 1973-1981 in 85 Troop and 41 and 45 Commando's. He also served aboard HMS's Zulu, Ashanti and Nubian (not too sure of the spelling) and at Faslane and Cyprus in, I believe, 1974. Anyone with any information or if you remeber him, can contact me at tosh84@Gmail.com

As im sure you all know they are sometimes both mentally and physically traumatized and are given little or no help. if you would like to try and kick up some fuss about it please go to <http://petitions.pm.gov.uk/Aidourtroops/> if, like me you feel that it is a national disgrace that our men and women are underequipped and left with little or no support then please sign it. my brother is out serving as a royal marine in afghanistan and i hope many other people feel as strongly about the lads and girls welfare as me. thanks! franziska stovell.

I will be 70 this year but still feel 18 - on a good day! there seem to be four of us so far, plus our venerable DI - so waht about it? Also 40 Cdo in Malta, Cyprus and a bit of Libya.Half the squad went on a world cruise and most of the rest joined 45 Cdo.

Comments: I would have liked to have attended the Remembrance Parade in London, however, I attended the Parade and social in Exmouth. Over 20 members marched and many others were amongst the massive crowd in the Strand Park Exmouth. On completion of the parade the social commenced in the RAFA Club and Finished in The Strand Pub, which is now The Booties Pub in Exmouth and is owned by the Landlord Connor (a former Royal MT) and his wife Sam. Last year Connor and Sam asked myself and Terry Sandy to assist them with a sale of kit for the late Danny Moran. With Connor & Sam's help over £1200 was raised to assist with Danny's funeral. I raise this point as it was not published in our Branch newsletter last year. Apologies to Connor and Sam. All the very best for the future.

Comments: I'm trying to get in touch with a friend of mine from years ago. He is Robert(Bob) Blyth who joined the Royal Marines in late 1958 or 1959. The last time I saw him was in Pompey in late 1971. I went abroad for 2 years & on my return I found that he & his family had moved, their neighbours thought that they may have moved to the West country somewhere.

I have tried looking through various phone books with no luck.

If anyone does know of his whereabouts could they contact me or get him to contact me.

Comments: What a great 60th Reunion at C.T.C.R.M.this weekend,the effort by the organisers was fantastic well done to everyone who was involved.It was the first year that I have attended,and I hope it won't be the last.To all the Royals that I met, and have not seen for over 40yrs it was a great pleasure to meet you all again.From the beginning of the weekend, to the march past I felt great pride to be with all the Royals, some (hundreds) of them I have never served with or met before it was a pleasure to be in your company. Would I do all over again, yes I b----y well would. Thank you to all the Royal Marines I served with whilst in the Corps who have given me some great memories,Once a marine always a marine how true that is,God Bless you all,and to those who are about to serve abroad, may you all return safely.WELL DONE CHARLIE.

Comments: Veterans need your support, this is not a spam, we do not want any money all we want is a couple of minutes of your time.

British Veterans are being denied the right to wear their medals on Remembrance Day.

In the 50s & 60s British & Commonwealth Forces defended Malaysia against communist insurgents and WON.

The King of Malaysia has awarded the Pingat Jasa Malaysia Medal to ALL Commonwealth troops that defended their Country.

The British Government will not allow their Veterans to wear this Medal, while the rest of the Commonwealth can & will.

This is the injustice we need your help to overturn & let these men wear their Medals with pride, the youngest is 60.

So how can you help, easy just log onto www.fight4thepjm.org click on FORUM click on REGISTER and follow the instructions.

Please register your support then pass this email on to ten other people, this way in less than 2 weeks we could have a million supporters, the British Government cannot ignore that sort of support.

Why do we need support from all over the world, because these men have migrated to all 4 corners of the globe. These men defended freedom & justice and are now being denied their rights, PLEASE HELP. Visit www.fight4thepjm.org outside the UK if you have a problem try www.fight4thepjm.org.uk

That's all you have to do to help 35,000 British Veterans most of which are now in their 60s & 70s.

Thank you

I was there on Thursday and it was a marvellous occasion and made me feel very proud of the Corps and of Great Britain. Unfortunately didn't realise it was being shown hence my request. I have contacted BBC and RM School of Music and apparently there are no plans to issue a Video or DVD at present. What a great pity. If many of you would also write/e-mail perhaps we could change their minds.

Comments: Hi All,

You may have known my father, you may have not, but it was worth contacting you all nonetheless.

His name was Peter John Rogers RM14414 ,who served with the 3rd Royal Marine Commando in late 50's and early 60's(1952-64?).

He served in marine commando regiments "40", "42" and "45" commando.

He was affectionately known as "Sticks", I guess that was due to him being a bugler/drummer.

He also made journeys on H.M.T. Dunera of which I have one photo of with a line up of him and several of his colleagues on the way back from Aden 1960.

And a gentleman with the nickname of "Smudge" was on there,along with Ginger, Ted, Benny,Alf, Stan, Mac and Gorden. Do these names ring a bell to you ? If they do , you may have served with my dad, who was/is a cockney, if that helps any.

I have some photos of him in the Dhala convoy too.

He also served with the RMB on HMY Britannia.

He has sadly recently passed away (Jan 26th 2006) through ill health but I am in the quest for photos , stories and basically anything to do with my father.

If you do have any information regarding him I would appreciate your reply, if not ,then I do apologise for wasting your time.

My kindest regards to you,

Russell Rogers (Son of Peter)

He was a Cornishman and joined in May 1941 and, after a spell at the RM Reserve Depot at Deal, in July 1941 went to HMS Prosperine a shore base at Scapa Flow in The Orkneys where he stayed until Feb 1943. Whilst there he had a mental breakdown and was discharged in April 1943 and died in 1945 when my dad was only 12. As a result we know VERY little about him and would so much appreciate ANY little bits of information.

Comments: Annual NIVA Service of Remembrance

Date: Saturday September 24th

Venue: National Memorial Arboretum, Alrewas, Staffordshire

Time: Service commences at 11.30 am.

The Northern Ireland Veterans Association Service of Remembrance is booked for the date and times shown above.

This year we hope to have as many standards as we can muster, therefore standard bearers, from any association/organisation will be made most welcome.

We would also like to have as many wreaths as possible laid in memory of those who gave their lives.

To that end we would like to invite anyone, who wishes to do so, to lay a wreath.
Whether the wreaths are to an individual, regiment, association or any other organisation they will be most welcome.

This invitation is open to all who wish to attend and membership of the association is not a prerequisite for attendance.

We have also secured discounted accommodation at the Holiday Inn Lichfield
for those attending the service.
The hotel have offered us a room rate of £50, which is a saving of £22.

Please can anyone booking a room state that they are booking under the Northern Ireland Veterans Association in order to obtain the discount.
This room rate is also available for either the night preceding or after the Saturday.
The contact details for the Holiday Inn are:

Express By Holiday Inn
WALL ISLAND,
BIRMINGHAM ROAD
LICHFIELD,
WS14 0QP
ENGLAND

0870-7201078                      www.holiday-inn.co.uk

We hope that as many Northern Ireland veterans as possible will attend not just to pay their respects but so we can make the Saturday evening an informal social occasion.

Both I and another colleague ( EX RSM OF A JOCK REGT. ? )are keen to stop him braggin to those that are non the wiser but we need info that is uniquely Marine to catch him out please. He is 47yrs old and would have signed up in 1977 if this is of any help to you? When the RSM and I get together on shift change he soon disappears, even his discharge papers and where he has served are secret, we all know that that is a load of bull***t.

Comments: To carry the national standard you first have to enter thte standard bearers competition that is held every year at the RMA reunion.

Then you have to win the cometision to have the right and the honour to carry the national standard. Plus the fact to do all this you have to be a member ofthe RMA, which according to your sign in you are not. so your first task is to join the RMA. Aye John_D

Comments: This is a new Guestbook as of today - due to problems with the old one - Appologies for the loss of the previous messages hopefully this one will prove more reliable.

You can leave pictures on this one which might prove more usefull...use the following code with a Less Than at the beginning and a Greater Than at the end You know like pointy brackets... ;)

img src="the link to your picture usually <http://www.yoursite.com/pictures/mephot.gif>"

The picture must already be on the Internet somewhere like an MSN photo album or your homepage...
